

Name: RJ Petershagen

Title: Director of Court Utilization, Bend Pickleball Club Board of Directors

Serving on the board of directors of the BPC, in the roles of director at large (2024-2025) and director of court utilization (2025-2026), as well as contracting as the club's coaching, training and teaching pro for member-based instructional clinics (2024-2026), I hereby declare my candidacy for assuming the role of director of training and development in the upcoming elections of board of directors' positions.

If elected to this position my intention will be to develop, schedule and coordinate with fellow certified coaches and instructors in offering a program of training and coaching focused on skill development, playing strategy options, and general rules of the game.

I look forward to continuing in my service to our members as a teaching professional, and as a developer of a training program focused on improvement, continued learning and most importantly enjoyment of the game.
